Windows' Symbolism Will Be Described

Rev. Harry D. Smith, pastor, First Lutheran Church, 1207 Broadway, will read a description of the Christian symbolism of five stained glass windows that complete the present church building program at the 10:30 a.m. services tomorrow.

The five windows, each donated in memory of a former member of the church, thus giving the windows historical significance, cost about $1500 each. They will complete the set of 14 windows for the sanctuary, depicting 10 scenes from the life of Christ, plus the Word and Sacraments windows and those of St. Peter and St. Paul.

During next week the church will be open to the public for viewing the windows from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

The windows and their donors are: "The Baptism of Christ," given by Mr. and Mrs. E. Neil Brooks; "Calling the Fisherman," given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Guadens Heins by Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Heins, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Heins Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Mims; "The Transfiguration," given in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Engert and Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Engert; "Gethsemane," given in memory of Rev. Karl Kretaschmar, a former pastor, by Jack and Joseph Williams, Clifford and Ramon Tauscher; and "The Crucifixion," given in memory by Albert, Luise and Oscar Zwicker by E. F. Zwicker.
