THE KNOXVILLE JOURNAL
Saturday, February 6, 1965

Rev. Krueger Rites Set For Today

Funeral services for Rev. W. C. Krueger, pastor of First Lutheran Church here from 1924 to 1943, will be held at 6 p.m. today from Trinity Lutheran Church in Memphis. Burial will take place Sunday in Cape Girardeau, Mo.

MR. KRUEGER

Mr. Krueger, who left Knoxville to become an institutional missionary in Memphis, died Thursday in a Memphis hospital. He had suffered a stroke about a week previously, friends said. He was 80.

A minister for 55 years, Mr. Krueger was honored in Memphis last August on the anniversary of his ordination.

Mr. Krueger is survived by two sons, David and Harold, both of whom attended University of Tennessee. David is now teaching at a college in Russellville, Ark., and Harold is teaching in Missouri, near St. Louis. Mrs. Krueger died last November.