Bible Institute Starts Oct. 24

Three Knoxville Missouri Synod Lutheran Churches, First, Grace and Christus Victor, and Faith Church of Oak Ridge will commemorate the 450th anniversary of the Reformation with a joint Bible Institute on four consecutive Tuesday nights, Oct. 24 through Nov. 14.

The institute will be held from 7:30 till 9:30 p.m. at Grace Lutheran Church, 6215 Kingston Pike. Four courses will be offered, including "St. Paul's Letter to the Romans," by Rev. Harry Smith; "Insights Into Reformation History," Rev. Ross Schuler; "Guidelines on How To Interpret the Bible," Rev. Irwin Goehring, and "New Trends in Lutheran Worship, Liturgy, Ceremony and Ecclesiastical Arts," Rev. Edward Melchior.

Each session will be in two 50-minute periods. The second will be a repeat of the first so that students may take two courses.

Persons may pre-register by calling or writing Grace Church or may register the first night of the institute. The fee is $1 per course.
