

TO THE CUBIT—A project designed to compare the old and new places of worship prompted the Sixth Grade Class of First Lutheran Church Sunday School to construct this scale model of the Old Testament tabernacle, from directions given by The Lord to Moses and chronicled in the book of Exodus. Members of the class who participated in the work are: (from left) Rickey Gibson, Steve Romines, Patricia Boruff, Diana McConnell; Mrs. Charles Z. Roettger, teacher; Jimmy Perkins, Bobby Lund and Harold Bunch. Shirley Mehlhorn, also a member of the class, was not present for the picture.

Cincinnatian To Be 1st Lutheran Pastor

The Rev. Harry Smith has accepted a call to First Lutheran Church following a congregational meeting yesterday. His installation as new pastor has been tentatively set for May 5.

The Rev. Robert Kunz, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church and interim supply at First Lutheran Church, today announced Mr. Smith's acceptance.

Mr. Smith, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, Cincinnati, was for seven years a missionary in India. He is a native of Covington, Ky., and was educated at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. Mrs. Smith and their four children will remain in Cincinnati until the end of the school year, he indicated.

Mr. Smith succeeds the Rev. Daniel D. Dautenhahn, who left last June to become pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, St. Louis.

First Lutheran Instals New Pastor

The Rev. Harry D. Smith, 38-year-old native of Covington, Ky., formerly a missionary in India, will be installed as pastor of 94-year-old First Lutheran Church at 4 p.m. Sunday. Since 1956 he has been pastor of Zion Lutheran, Cincinnati.

Mr. Smith

Pastor Robert P. Nerger, Wartburg, will conduct the installation on behalf of the president of the Western District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. The Rev. Everett G. Grese, Chattanooga, a former assistant pastor of First Church here, will give the sermon. Clergymen from Johnson City, Greeneville, Morristown, Oak Ridge, Harriman, Kingston and Bristol will participate.

Family To Return

The Rev. Robert Kunz, Grace Lutheran Church pastor, has been interim pastor of First Church. Mr. Kunz will be in charge of a service by the Senior Choir, directed by Miss Katherine Cluver.

Mrs. Smith and the four Smith children will attend the ceremony, then return to Cincinnati until the end of the school year.

Mrs. Smith is the great-great-granddaughter of a founder of the Missouri Synod Church.

Smith Was Athlete

Mr. Smith was educated at Concordia College, Fort Wayne, Ind.,

and Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, where he was an outstanding cross-country runner and basketball player. He has recently taken graduate studies at Hebrew Theological Seminary, Cincinnati.

An accomplished musician, Mr. Smith was a member of the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra and the St. Louis Bach Society in his student days.

THE KNOXVILLE JOURNAL

Saturday, May 11, 1963

NEW AT FIRST—Rev. Harry D. Smith, new pastor of First Lutheran Church, introduced his family to the congregation at the installation ceremonies last Sunday. Mrs. Smith and the children, sons Martin, 13, and Frederick, 11, daughters Carol, 6, and Marilyn, 1, returned to Cincinnati for the rest of the school year, but will come back in June. Pastor Smith has been the leader of Zion Lutheran Church in Cincinnati since 1956. He was a missionary to Cochin, South India, from 1950-56. Mrs. Smith is the former Dorothy Husmann of Dayton, Ohio, great-granddaughter of one of the founders of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Her father is Rev. E. S. Husmann of Dayton, also a Lutheran minister.

BROTHERS REUNITED — Rev. Robert Kunz (left), pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, and his brother Reynold W. Kunz are living in the same town for the first time in 20 years. Reynold arrived here last Sunday and tomorrow will be installed as minister of education and principal of the parochial school at First Lutheran Church during 10:30 a.m. services. A reception for the newcomer and his family (wife, Anne Martha, and daughter, Enid Jean) will be held at 4 p.m. in the church basement. Pastor Kunz said he and his brother, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kunz of St. Louis, Mo., went to different schools after eighth grade, and the nearest they came to residing near each other after that was in 1958, when he left Houston, Tex., to come to Grace Church here two weeks before his brother arrived to be principal of Our Redeemer Lutheran High School in Houston.

R. W. Kunz Is Lutheran School Head

Reynold W. Kunz will be installed as minister of education and principal of First Lutheran Church Parochial School at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, and, with his wife and daughter, Enid Jean, will be honored with a reception at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Mr. Kunz is a brother of the Rev. Robert A. Kunz, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church,

Mr. Kunz and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kunz, St. Louis. He is a graduate of Concordia Teachers College. He comes from Our Redeemer Lutheran Church, where he has been school principal since 1958. While at Houston he was program director of the Houston Lutheran Principals' Conference.

First Lutheran Church will have its Vacation Bible School Monday through July 18 at 9:30-11:30 a. m. each Monday through Thursday. "Walking with God" is the theme of classes for ages 3-14. Closing exercises will be held at 7:30 p. m. July 18.
