Scout Sunday Marks 60th Anniversary

Boy Scout Sunday will be observed in a number of area churches tomorrow, including the presentation of For God and Country awards and marking the 60th anniversary of Scouting in America.

Jack Teague Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Teague of 307 Weisgarber Rd., will receive the Pro Deo et Patria award at the 9 a.m. service at Grace Lutheran Church Sunday.

Rick Waggener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cole Waggener of 524 Avon Circle, will receive the same award at the 11 a.m. service at Messiah Lutheran Church.

The award represents the achievement of 150 hours of service in church and community. Both boys are members of Boy Scout Unit 144 of the Smoky Mountain Council. The troop will witness both presentations at the respective churches.

Bill Young, captain of the U-T football team and an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, will be the guest speaker at the evening worship service at Lonsdale United Methodist Church. Boy Scout Troop 341 will be in charge of service.
