Lutherans Elect Mundt President Of Congregation

Dr. J. O. Mundt, 709 Inskip Road, a University of Tennessee microbiology professor has been elected president of the First Lutheran Church congregation.

Mundt will be installed along with other officers at ceremonies Sunday.

Other officers elected were: R. C. Richardson, 2222 Island Home Boulevard, an accountant for General Truck Sales of Knoxville, vice president; Gerald McElyea, secretary; Howard King, financial secretary, and Ralph Mertz, treasurer.

Chairmen of the various church boards also have been elected for 1970 and will be installed Sunday. They are Pat Sienknech, the board of elders; Clifford Tauscher, board of Christian education; Barry Mitchell, board of finance; and Roscoe Barringer, Sunday School superintendent.

Dr. Mundt

Richardson

service Sunday. His sermon topic for the 5 p.m. service is "No Graven Images."