CONFIRMATION CLASS—The Rev. Harry D. Smith, interim pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, will confirm these students during services Palm Sunday. They are from left, Pamela Wilson, Kenneth Reedy, Terrie Grubb, Beth Hamilton, Lisa Halter and Barbara LaChine. The Rev. Smith, who is also pastor of First Lutheran Church, will confirm members of his church Sunday also.

Confirmation Services Set At Local Churches

A traditional part of Palm Sunday services at Grace and First Lutheran churches is confirmation of children of the church, and this year the Rev. Harry D. Smith will confirm 18 persons.

At 9 a.m. the following persons will be confirmed at Grace Church, Terrie Brubb, Lisa Halter, Barbie LaChine, Ken Reedy and Pam Wilson.

Beth Hamilton, daughter of a Lutheran missionary in India, was supposed to be confirmed with this class but will wait until her father returns from the mission field.

Then at 10:30 a.m. the Rev. Mr. Smith, who serves as interim pastor at Grace and pastor at First church, will confirm Rose Marie Bridges, Nancy Domm, Steve Harrison, Carrie Heins, Connie Lashley, Suellen Lund, Steve McBee, Carol Smith, Joan Stewart, Karent Swann, Tommy Swann and Karl Tauscher.

Holy Week services at the two churches will follow this schedule: at Grace, 7:30 p.m. Maundy Thursday communion service led by the Rev. E. S. Husmann, Dayton, Ohio; and at 7:30 p.m. Good Friday the Rev. Mr. Smith will conduct the Tenebrae Service. At First, 7:30 p.m. Maundy Thursday, the Rev. Mr. Smith will conduct the communion service; and at 7:30 p.m. Good Friday, the Rev. Mr. Husmann will conduct the Tenebrae service.
