Go back to the 20's with me for a few minutes

Do you know what Teenagers did back when there were no TV's and Theatres were located in the uptown section of Knoxville. Rather than spend their money to ride a street car to go to a movie, they saved it for the "Hot Tamalie Man" who came through their neighborhood every evening yelling "Hot Dogs - Hot Tamales". During the winter months. In the summer months the "Ice Cream Wagon" roved through the streets selling his Goodies. Fifteen cents ~~worth~~ went a long way in those days.

Then came Sunday. After Sunday school and Church the boys became a little restless they got together and decided to form a Baseball team. They played every Sunday (weather permitting) at 2:30 at the Baseball Park on McCalla Ave, in Park City
