THE REV. DANIEL DAVID DAUTENHAHN

The Rev. Daniel D. Dautenhahn comes to First Church from Temple, Texas, where he has served as pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church the past five years.

Born September 19, 1915, at Fairland, Oklahoma, he later lived at Perry, where he received his elementary education. After a pre-theological course at St. John's College, Winfield, Kansas, he attended Concordia Theological Seminary, St. Louis, graduating in 1939. One year of vicarage was spent at Immanuel Church in Aurora, Illinois.

Since entering the ministry in 1939 Pastor Dautenhahn has served four pastorates in the state of Texas. He assisted in St. Paul Lutheran Church of Austin as his first assignment upon graduation from the seminary. Three years were spent at Lufkin, where First Church was organized and their first chapel was built under his leadership. Ten more years were spent in the pastorate of Trinity, Tyler, from where he went to Temple in 1953.

At Tyler Pastor Dautenhahn was instrumental in starting a Christian Day School, and he also served a mission in neighboring Kilgore. Founded by him in 1949, this mission grew into Pilgrim Church with its own pastor. During his pastorate at Temple, Immanuel Congregation built a new church.

Positions of major responsibility in which our pastor-elect served the Texas District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod include a circuit visitorship and the chairmanship of two district committees—Public Relations and Stewardship. He was also chairman of the North Texas Regional Conference of Pastors and Teachers, and in 1951 he was elected the official representative of the district president for the East Texas congregations. The Walther League has also claimed his time and effort as editor of their "Lone Star Leaguer" and as a leader in talent quests.

Mrs. Dautenhahn, whom he married on July 20, 1941, is a daughter of the Rev. Edward Hauer, Alma, Kansas. The Dautenhahns have two children—Elaine and Karen, 15 and 12 years of age respectively.
